There is nothing like Choc Nibbles in the USA, it is fun, quirky and definitely unique – forget the looks, it doesn't conform to society's demand for perfection, rather it focuses on taste and quality rather than aesthetics!

Our products are made from the finest British ingredients known to confectionery but that's not the only reason they are so delicious. It's the special way that Bert blends, tweaks and refines each and every batch which makes them so utterly and delectably moreish making you want to come back for more.

These tasty chocolate treats most certainly have the 'nibble factor'. Versatile too, they're a perfect ingredient for home baking – creating delicious desserts, cupcakes, toppings for ice-cream, pan-cakes and milkshakes. In short, there is not, never has been and never will be anything quite like it available in the USA.

Nibblelicious...
